Add a Document Type

Document type name:

Attached to: Internal Notes

- This is an example of how the main Submit page could be organized
- We have to define catalogues
- We have to decide which document types and which categories we want to associate to each catalogue

COM document type (in progress)

ILC Communications example

ILC Communications
ILC Internal Communications with no refereeing.

Global Large Detector
Large Detector Concept
Silicon Detector

Submit New Record
Modify Record
Submit New File

Notice:
Select a category and then click on an action button.

- Categories can be associated to a document type
- The record name of an internal communication related to the Silicon Detector is now in the format : ILC_COM_SID_2006_nnn, that includes the SID category name. Similarly, there could be a communication with the name ILC_COM_LDC_2006_nnn or ILC_COM_GLD_2006_nnn.

Submit Web page/form (in progress)

- Example: just one page (instead of 4) for the submission of a ILC Communication. The user has to fill the usual fields: title, author(s), affiliation,... (mandatory or optional fields).
 - Can be configured for each document type

Title

Author(s)
(one per line in the form: FullName, Initial(s))

Affiliation [optional]

Abstract [optional]

Language
English

Creation Date (dd/mm/yyyy)

Keywords (one per line) [optional]

Author's Comments [optional]

Other reference number(s) (eg: from other institutes) [optional]

Record naming scheme

- Imitating CERN convention we will get something like:

PREPRINT:	ILC-category-[sub-category]-year-nnn
REPORT :	ILC-year-nnn
COMMITTEE DOC:	ILC-committee-year-nnn
ARTICLES :	N/A
THESIS :	ILC- THESIS -year-nnn
NOTES :	ILC- COM -category-year-nnn [to be approved]
	ILC- NOTE -category-year-nnn [approved]
[.....]

- there are many exceptions to the CERN scheme
- “we need to think out the categories/sub-categories, etc for the long term” (Barry)
